

NOTE of a meeting of TURN LYME GREEN – Green Drinks – on Tuesday, 10 March 2015 at the Royal Lion, Broad Street, Lyme Regis commencing at 7.30pm

PRESENT Candida Blaker, Chris Boothroyd, Ann Boothroyd, Polly Benfield, David Tomkinson, Ruth Katz and Hannah Martin visiting from Green Peace.

GREEN PEACE and COASTAL CHAMPIONS

Hannah Martin led a discussion about the Green Peace event the following evening at the Cobb Centre, inviting all local Parliamentary candidates to speak about their policies on local, small boat fishing– aimed at under 10 meter boats – and to sign up as ‘Coastal Champions’ supporting the Green Peace position to protect local livelihoods and traditions.

APPLE PRUNING WORKSHOP

8 people had signed up for the workshop with Phil Gamble the following Sunday. Chris and Ann to handle publicity.

RECYCLING AND HOMEOWNERS’ BINS

As homeowners were being given new wheelie bins once the new scheme started in the summer, Ruth Katz raised the issue of what people could do with their redundant bins. Waterbutts? Compost bins? Perhaps a competition could be launched for good ideas. Ruth to follow up.

CIVIC DINNER

David Tomkinson to attend with Polly Benfield on behalf of TLG.

SEED EXCHANGE

A Seed and Plant Exchange was scheduled at Abbeyfield on 26th March, 2.30-4.30pm.

NEXT MEETING

Tuesday 21 April. 7.30.. Royal Lion. Postponed from the 14th as a debate with all the Parliamentary candidates would be held at the Woodroffe School on that evening. The May meeting would be held on Tuesday 12th.
